

Great news from South Florida Bible College for your Homeschooled High schoolers!

SFBC is offering homeschooled students who live in Broward or Palm Beach County the opportunity to study at our facility up to 30 credits for FREE, as dual enrolled students. The only required costs are the application and registration fees ($150), and books.

The general tuition at SFBC is $275 per credit. While our tuition is more affordable than most private colleges in the nation, we believe this scholarship will be an additional blessing to homeschooled students. The benefits only apply to Junior and Senior high school students. Once you have graduated high school, you will be required to pay regular tuition for classes.

SFBC upholds strong Evangelical, Judeo-Christian beliefs and makes every effort to maintain a safe environment. We are rolling out this new homeschool initiative and we want you to be a part of it as God is doing amazing things at SFBC.

Please contact us if you have any questions or need any assistance, including help with the online application, choice of degree program, class selection, and overall strategic educational plan.

Blessings,
